6. MATTERS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

- a) Telephone Box: A tool has been made to take the bulb out but there may be a problem with the electrics, so a local electrician has been asked to have a look at it.
- b) Phil James has agreed to look at the problem of the water going down the hill to hints off the A4117.
- c) The cat's eyes on the junction of the A4117 have now been fitted correctly.
- d) Still awaiting gritting policy.
- e) The "Children Playing" signs are now in desperate need of repainting, PJ is going to see what can be done.
- f) Councilors asked to think of who may wish to be approached about being co-opted as a Parish Councilor.
- g) New website is nearly up and running.

7. PARISH MATTERS

- a) Zac Cowel, Forge End Coreley, has contracted a parish councilor about confirming his local connections for planning. He needs to write in explaining how he fits the criteria.
- b) Residents have complained about someone riding a quad bike around the village to fast. When they are spotted, they need to be identified and reported to the police.
- c) In the last bad rain fall all the road came up again by the Old Rectory. Ask PJ when he thinks it may be done. The amount of water running off the fields is adding to the problem.

- d) The clerk to report the damage to the bus shelter to the police and the insurance company.
- e) Wide vehicles using country lanes. VR to bring up at the next LJC meeting.

8. REPORT FROM LJC

The next meeting is tonight to discuss the 2L route, pedestrian crossing at Tuffins, speeding and the Future budget of Shropshire council. There has to be £40 Million saving, but the priority Services to try and protect are Children and Adult Services. It was discussed about sharing and solving to save money.
