6. MATTERS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

- The ditch that borders the common is still waiting for the Flood and Water Management team to feedback from their investigations.
- The style at the footpath in Hints has now been sorted and is in place.
- There have been no comments made from residents after putting a notice in the Coreley Chatter about the bus shelter too see if people want it to stay or not have one at all but it was agreed by the Parish Council to get quotes to have it repaired.

7. PARISH MATTERS

- Neighborhood Watch: The public meeting that was held with the police about come safety measure was well attended and residents appeared to find it very informative.
- Concerns have been shown about some horses that appear to be abandoned in a field at Planton Court, it has been reported to the RSPCA, LB is going to contact them to see if there have been any developments.
- A grit bin is needed at the first bend as you come off the A4117 to Coreley. Report to Shropshire Council.
- The reflective post on the common from the A4117 down to Coreley and at Cornbrook need replacing. Report to Shropshire Council.
- The Neighbourhood Watch sign is broken by Hints Gate, LB has one he can replace it with.
- There was a request from Coreley Chatter to ask if the Parish Council would purchase a duplex printer for them, but there was an offer made by IS to print it for a small charge. It was suggested that Coreley Chatter get a quote for a printer for future reference if needed.

- g) The road outside Hall Farm just past the horse signs is very poor and needs attention.
- h) The Post Office on Clee Hill is now only open on a Monday, Wednesday and Friday until such time as the new service starts in Clee Hill car park.
- i) It was suggested to find out what is involved with having a defibrillator in the parish. Clerk to find out.
