2022/100 Parish Matters

1. A grit bin has been requested down the Bower, but not sure where, JT to contact resident for confirmation for the best place to site a bin.
2. Broken grit bin needs taking away by the church.
3. There was a request for Defib training, once someone has been found to take the training, the Parish Council will first ask for expressions of interest, before training is organised.
4. Ownership of the Common. Clerk to ask the Commoners Association if there is a record of who owns the common in our parish.
5. The gateway at Pound Lane in front of the Old Pound, needs some stone being put in the gateway. Landowner to be asked.

2022/101 Parish Plan Review

Report from Meeting 12.01.23

1. A letter has been drafted to go out to residents.
2. All Residents to be invited to open meeting

3. Parish Council to formally launch on the 17th May.
5. The group had asked what outcomes there had been from the last Parish Plan?
Planning – There have been several Local need houses built in the parish as identified as a need in the plan. It was identified that the parish thought a Newsletter would be a good idea, the Coreley Chatter was the result.
6. Next meeting of the group 13.03.23

2022/102 King Coronation 6th May

It was agreed that it would be a wonderful idea to do something to commemorate the occasion. Afternoon tea in the village hall, a Hog Roast or BBQ were also suggested. It was also suggested that a memento, could be given to every member/household in the parish. There were other suggestions such as mugs, tea towels, teaspoons. Clerk to find information and send around. To confirm plans at the next meeting.
